- It is well known that the RANO-style 2D measurements are not as accurate as volumetric assessments of postcontrast 3D T1 sequences. Therefore, 3D measurements would improve the quality of the manuscript.
- The manuscript would also be enriched if control groups (progressive tumors after resection or pseudo-progression cases) are included.
- Did you use the highest rCBF within the areas of high signal on ASL?