

Interesting and well written study regarding the Comparison of cortical and subcortical brain atrophy assessments on NCCT and MRI in acute stroke. Thank you for your work.

The study is clear, well conceived and scientific methodology is appropriate.

Research question is basic but essential and consequently results reflect what is expected upon the basis of common clinical practice.