

I have no COI and no idea who the authors are. This single center retrospective observational study aiming to assess the effect of IV alteplase administered before thrombectomy is ill organized and badly written. The description of methods and results is incomplete, the interpretation of the results is flawed, and the conclusions not warranted by the results. I would reject. It was really no fun to study this paper.